- 25X1X 1. The Italian Communist Party is reportedly "disappointed" by the recent news to the effect that Italian industry would be called upon to collaborate in the European rearmament program.
2. The PCI is allegedly formulating plans for the boycotting of Italian industry by the Communist labor force. These plans will reportedly be executed in October 1950, immediately following the agitations for pay increases in September 1950.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
